

- Sun. Oct. 22 Accounts of the Mabry & O'Conner funerals.
- Tues. Oct. 24 E. J. Sandford succeeds Maj. O'Conner as President of the Mechanics National Bank.
- Wed. Oct. 25 Yesterday the last races of the season finished. Resolutions in the Supreme Court at Knoxville respecting Hon. Robert L. Caruthers, with a good deal of biographical detail.
- Thurs. Oct. 26 Siege of Knoxville, a scrap of war history, evidently taken from the National Tribune a line map of E. Tenn. down the valley from Rogersville to Chicamauga.
Juvenile Reading Club - Miss Willie Drumgoole will organize one Friday afternoon at her Boarding House on Summitt Hill.
- Fri. Oct. 27 New Catholic church has been commenced on the corner of Vine and Walnut Sts near the present church.
It will be fine architecturally and completely finished both inside and out.
- Sat. Oct. 28
- Sun. Oct. 29 Magnolia Mills, on 1st Creek near the Main Street iron bridge, is under management of Mr. U. A. Rouser. Will run a merchant mill and also do custom grinding. One of the finest in the city, both water and steam power.
- Sat. Nov. 18
- Sun. Nov. 19 Continuation of Siege of Knoxville begun last Sunday.
The water works muddle.
- Tues. Oct. 31 Esmiralda last night at Staub's Opera House. A play by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, enthusiastically received in Knoxville.
- November
- Nov. 21
- Wed. 1 Jacksboro and Tazewell Pikes, permanent improvements recently made - a very good description.
- Wed. Nov. 22
- Thurs. Nov. 2 The water works, construction progress being made. Good column description.
- Thurs. Nov. 23
- Fri. Nov. 3 Lillie's Mill corner Vine and Crozier Streets burned yesterday afternoon valued about $20,000 with wheat etc. in it at $2,000.00, Formerly owned by Mr. J. P. Beach and sold by him to Jasper Lillie, one of the best mills in East Tenn. and a great loss to Knoxville. Good picture of difficulties of fire fighting with the engines J. C. Luttrell and Alec Allison.
- Sat. Nov. 4 City Council proceedings - the water works muddle.
- Sun. Nov. 5 The Public Library - yesterday a notable day - over 250 visitors, some 75 volumes circulated.
South Gay Street, a description of the buildings and businesses there.
Siege of Knoxville continued from two previous papers.
- Sat. Nov. 25
- Tues. Nov. 7 Girls Industrial Home Annual meeting. Column and a half.
Knoxville literary paper "The Criterion". See one or two papers preceding this for mention of the editor, Miss India McIntoch.
- Wed. Nov. 8 Election returns from over the state.
- Thurs. Nov. 9
- Fri. Nov. 10 Today Samuel and Milton Hodge will be executed by hanging. Place is south side of Tennessee River about 100 yds. from the end of the bridge.
Description of the location and the gallows.
Marking street corners and numbering of buildings, an ordinance.
- Sat. Nov. 11 Gone to Glory Yesterday's execution.
- Sun. Nov. 12 Two incidents in Knoxville history: Remarkable media - How Gray Cemetery was named. Both signed by John H. Crozier. This short history of Gray Cemetery is interesting.